

A PINK PIG ON THE RANCH

The land is flat and green.

A hen pecks
by the tall
birch trunk.

A pink pig sniffs
the dirt. A cow rests in the shade of a tree.
The pig thinks it
smells a snack.

Cows, pigs, and hens pack this land. You can get fresh eggs and milk. Think of all the food!

Tame a horse and ride! I think the flat
land is best for a ranch.

A lad stands
by the lake.

Dunk the line in! A fish will bite fast.

These mobs will not bonk you.

They munch
grass and rest
in the sun.

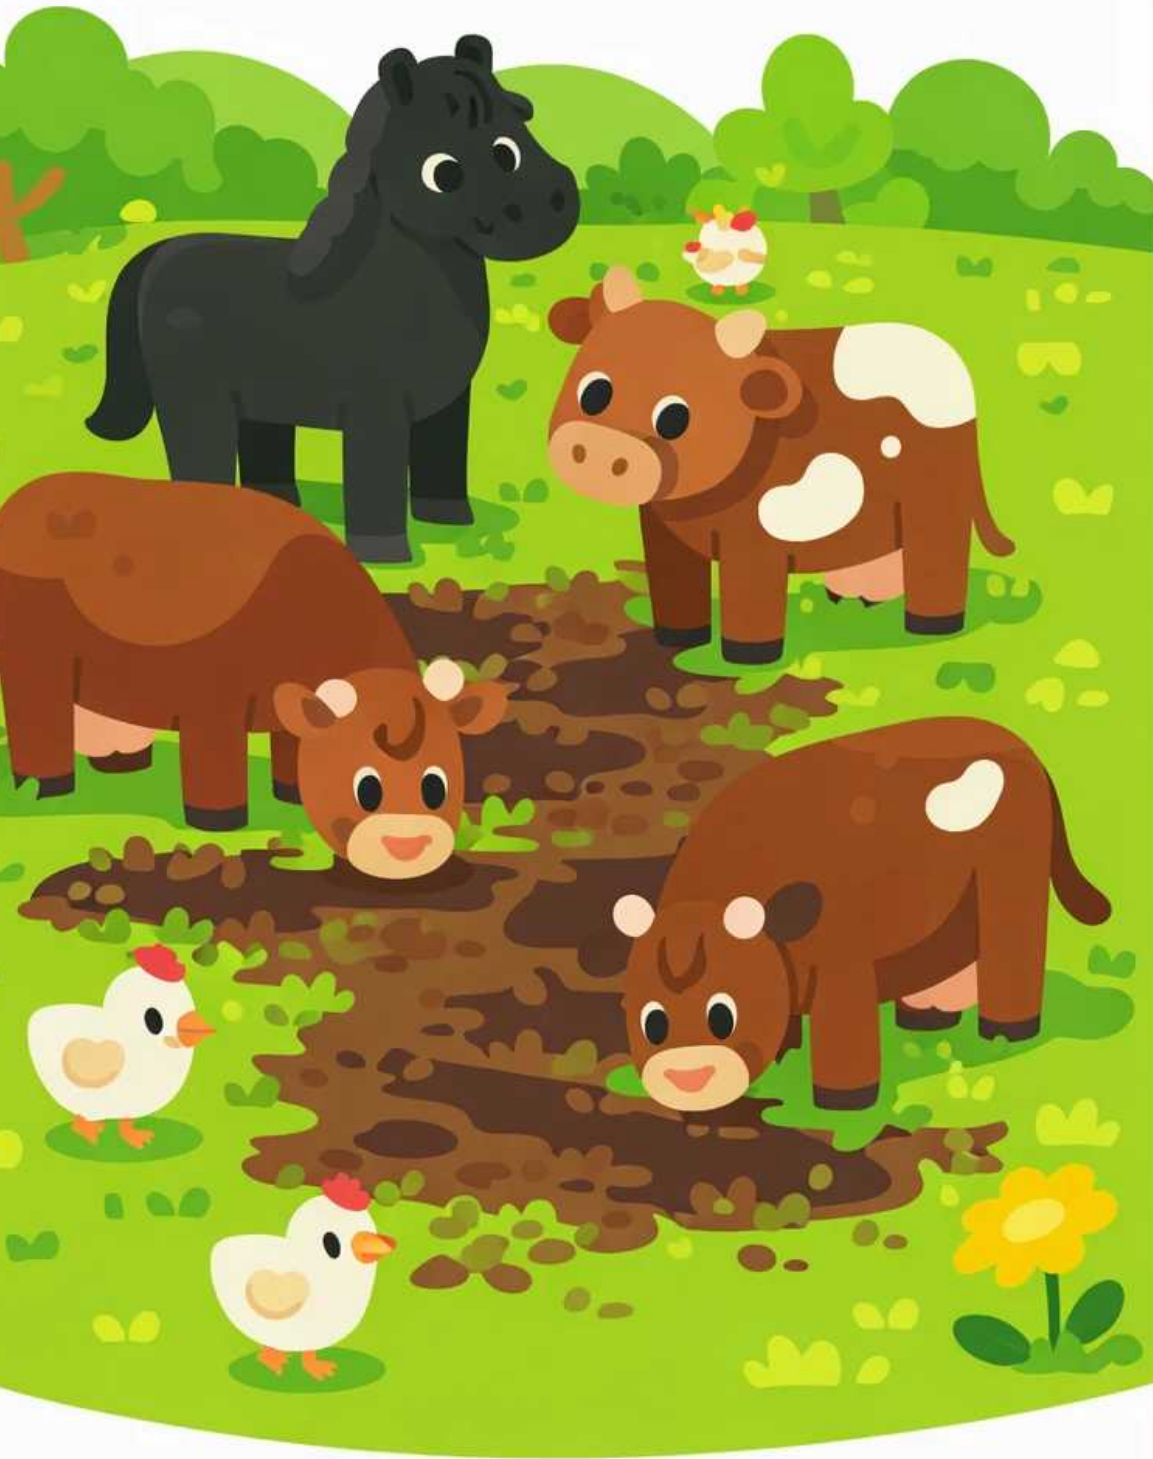

These
plants face the sun. I think this land is fine!

Too many cows
munch this patch. The grass shrank,
and dry dirt is left.

Big cows and horses stomp the land. Clunk, clunk! Small hens do not stomp much at all.

The lad thinks of his cows. He keeps not too many, so the land stays green. Thank him for the green land!

A Pink Pig on the Ranch

Have you ever wandered across the wide, flat plains of Minecraft? A pink pig sniffs the dirt, a hen pecks by a tall birch trunk, and horses gallop under a bright blue sky. Could this be the perfect spot to build a ranch? But when too many cows munch the grass, what happens to the land? This decodable reader practices the nk phonogram in words like 'pink,' 'trunk,' 'think,' 'dunk,' and 'thank.'
