

IT SPRINGS BACK!

An Unofficial Minecraft Book

I march and march this path so long. I see each hut
is dark and
wrong.

The golem is tall and strong. It stands still
all night long.

That cat
must be a ghost thing. It
brings a cold,
cold sting.

I check each
hut, but not a thing! The place is still,
no song to
sing!

The long snake
springs up by the hut! My legs back up,
my mouth
stays shut!

A zombie villager runs at me fast.

Twang, I shoot, and he falls at last.

Up it springs, a
ghost thing!
It can still
hit with a
sting.

At night, I
see a ghost
gang. I run fast. No time to hang!

It Springs Back!

The bravest explorer in the whole world has walked through dark caves and crossed rivers at night - so why is this quiet village under the full moon making their legs wobble? The jack-o-lanterns glow, the huts stand empty, and a see-through cat is watching every step. Where did all the villagers go, and what rises up when the rain comes hammering down? This decodable reader practices the 'ng' sound in words like 'long,' 'sing,' 'strong,' and 'twang.'
